No, we do not accept short films. You must apply with an idea for a feature film or series.

Do you accept projects inspired by real events / true stories / real people?

Your project can be based on real events, true stories, or real people. However, they need to be in the public domain, free of copyright issues, or you must have obtained the necessary underlying rights to source material, IP or life rights. Your project must be a narrative (scripted) feature film or series, not a documentary.

I have a unique idea; are you open to all stories?

We are excited by things which are wildly creative and out of the box!

My script has been optioned by a third-party producer / production company; can I apply with the same script?

No. If your project has been optioned or sold to a third party, the project is not eligible for UNTAPPED.

What materials should I submit?

Please refer to the UNTAPPED main website. The most important materials are a detailed treatment or complete feature or pilot screenplay, but we also encourage you to submit supplemental materials such as a lookbook or series pitch document. If you are applying as a director, you must submit a link to a directing work sample. We want to see everything you have. The more specific you are, the better. Good additional materials can make your application stronger.

Can directors show previous work?

Directors are required to include a link to prior work.

What do you want to see in a directing work sample?

Please select what you consider to be your best work that is most relevant to the submitted project. The sample should help to demonstrate your visual storytelling ability. Directing reels will not be accepted as a sample. We will watch one work sample only. Please do not submit multiple samples. If you are directing us to your website, please specify what film or video you would like the committee to review. Make sure to include the password if the link is protected.

I'm a writer, can I attach a sample of my previous work?

Writers don't need to show samples of work unrelated to the project they are applying to UNTAPPED with. You only need to show us your materials (treatment or screenplay) for the project you wish to develop during UNTAPPED.

Are you looking for anything specific?

We are not looking for a specific genre at all, we are open to any kind of story.

How can my application stand out?

Articulate your goals for your career and what you hope to gain from the program. Convey your passion and why it is so important for you to tell this story. We want projects which have a unique and authentic perspective, something only you can make!

Can an applicant change their project to a different one during the program?

Please reach out to us, we will address this on a case-by-case basis only.

May I reapply to untapped with the same project as last year?

Yes, you may reapply with the same project you submitted previously; however, we encourage you to re-apply only if there have been significant changes to the script.
